- 4.10 If the Customer is purchasing goods from the Supplier's Website and there is any conflict between this Condition 4 and any other provision detailed in these Conditions, this Condition 4 will take precedence.

5. DELIVERY

- 5.1 In the case of a business Customer:
 - 5.1.1 The dates mentioned in any quotation, Order, acceptance form or elsewhere for delivery of the Goods are approximate only and time for delivery is not of the essence and shall not be made so by the service of any notice. The Supplier accepts no liability for failure to deliver on or by a particular date or dates; and
 - 5.1.2 The Supplier will have fulfilled its contractual obligations in respect of each delivery of Goods provided that the quantity actually delivered is not more than 10% more or less than the quantity specified in the Contract. The Customer shall pay for the actual quantity delivered.

- 5.2 Where the Customer is dealing as a Consumer:
- 5.2.1 The Supplier will do all they reasonably can do deliver the Goods within the agreed timescale (or, if none has been agreed, within 14 days of the day after the Customer's Order), however, the Supplier cannot be held responsible for delays due to Force Majeure Events as defined in Condition 19. If the Goods are not supplied within 14 days and a revised date for delivery cannot be agreed then provided that one of the aforementioned events has not occurred, the Customer will be able to cancel the Contract without penalty and will be refunded any monies paid under the Contract within a period of 14 days from such cancellation; and
- 5.2.2 If the Supplier delivers more of the Goods than are specified in the Contract, then the Customer may refuse to accept any excess Goods and shall pay only for the actual quantity ordered. 5.3 The Supplier will deliver the Goods to the location specified in the Contract or as otherwise agreed with the Supplier.
- 5.4 The cost of delivery within the area specified in the Contract is included in the price but the Supplier will make an additional charge for delivery outside of this area or within this area but otherwise than by its normal carrier or for express delivery.
- 5.5 The Customer is solely responsible for ensuring that the delivery of the Goods can be made safely without injury or damage to any person or property, and for unloading the Goods at the point of delivery. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Supplier, the Customer shall unload the Goods immediately on their arrival at the place of delivery. The Customer shall indemnify the Supplier against each loss, liability and cost arising as a result of the Supplier or its sub-contractors assisting the Customer in the unloading, loading or other removal of the Goods from the point of delivery.
- 5.6 The Customer shall upon delivery arrange for an authorised representative to sign the delivery note and such delivery note shall constitute absolute proof of delivery. If no such signature can be obtained the Goods may not be delivered and if so shall be deemed to have been refused under the provisions of Condition
- 5.6. Where a date and time for delivery has been agreed with the Customer, and either:
- 5.6.1 The Customer fails to take delivery on the agreed date and time and in accordance with this Condition 5.6; or
- 5.6.2 The Supplier is unable to complete the delivery of the Goods, due to conditions at the Customer's premises being unsafe, in the reasonable opinion of the delivery driver, having due regard to all the circumstances, the supplier shall be entitled to recover from the Customer the cost of re-delivering the same goods.

5.7 If the Customer refuses or fails to take delivery of Goods delivered in accordance with a Contract or fails to take any action necessary on its part for delivery or shipment of the Goods:

5.7.1 In the case of a business Customer, the Supplier is entitled to terminate the Contract with immediate effect; or

5.7.2 where the Customer is dealing as a Consumer, the Supplier shall attempt to arrange another date for delivery with the Customer, but if the Customer again refuses or fails to take delivery of the Goods, the Supplier shall be entitled to terminate the Contract on reasonable notice to the Customer, and the supplier may then dispose of the Goods as the Supplier may determine and recover from the Customer any loss or additional costs incurred as a result of such refusal or failure (including, without limitation, storage costs from the due date of delivery).

5.8 Unless otherwise expressly agreed, the Supplier may effect delivery in one or more instalments. If delivery is effected by instalments, each instalment shall be treated as a separate Contract and no cancellation or termination of any one Contract relating to an instalment shall entitle the Customer to repudiate or cancel any other Contract or instalment.

6. EXPORT SALES

6.1 If the Goods are sold CIF or FOB or on the basis of another Incoterm, the meaning of such Incoterm shall apply, except where inconsistent with any of the provisions contained in these Conditions.

6.2 Unless agreed otherwise, the Customer shall secure the price of any Goods sold under an international supply contract as defined by section 26 of the Unfair Contract Terms Act 1977 by establishing in the Supplier's favour an irrevocable letter of credit on terms satisfactory to the Supplier immediately upon receipt of the Supplier's acceptance of an Order and confirmed by a UK bank acceptable to the Supplier.

7. RISK AND TITLE - BUSINESS CUSTOMERS

7.1 Risk for the Goods passes on delivery but title to the Goods (whether separate and identifiable or incorporated in or mixed with other goods) remains with the Supplier until the Customer pays to the Supplier:

7.1.1 The agreed price for the Goods (together with any accrued interest at the rate specified in Condition 10.5); and

7.1.2 All other amounts which are or which become due to the Supplier from the Customer on any account.

7.2 Until title to the Goods passes to the Customer under Condition 7.1, the Customer shall:

7.2.2 Store the Goods (at no cost to the Supplier) separately from all other goods and readily identifiable as the property of the Supplier;

- 7.2.3 Not destroy, deface or obscure any identifying mark or packaging on or relating to the Goods;
- 7.2.4 Maintain the Goods in satisfactory condition; and
- 7.2.5 Not attach the Goods to any other property without the Supplier's consent.
- 7.3 If the Customer resells any Goods in which title has not passed to the Customer, such resale shall be in the ordinary course of the Customer's business at full market value.
- 7.4 At any time before title to the Goods passes to the Customer (whether or not any payment to the Supplier is then overdue or the Customer is otherwise in breach of any obligation to the Supplier), the Supplier may (without prejudice to any other of its rights):
- 7.4.1 retake possession of all or any part of the Goods and enter any premises for that purpose (or authorise others to do so) which the Customer hereby authorises;
- 7.4.2 require delivery up to it of all or any part of the Goods.
- 7.5 The Supplier may at any time appropriate sums received from the Customer as it thinks fit, notwithstanding any purported appropriation by the Customer.
- 7.6 The Customer grants the Supplier, its agents and employees and irrevocable licence at any time to enter any premises where the Goods are or may be stored in order to inspect them or where the Customer's right to possession has terminated, to recover them.
- 7.7 From the time of delivery until title in the Goods passes to the Customer in accordance with Condition 7.1, the Customer shall insure the Goods for their full value with a reputable insurer and, if the Supplier so requests, ensure that the Supplier's name is noted on the insurance policy. Until title in the Goods passes to the Customer, the Customer shall hold the proceeds of any claim on such insurance policy on trust for the Supplier and shall immediately account to the Supplier with the proceeds.
- 7.8 On termination of the Contract, howsoever caused, the Supplier's (but not the Customer's) rights contained in this condition 7 shall remain in effect.

- 8.1 Risk for the Goods passes on delivery but title to the Goods (whether separate and identifiable or incorporated in or mixed with other goods) remains with the Supplier until the Customer pays to the Supplier the agreed price for the Goods (together with any accrued interest at the rate specified in Condition 10.5).
- 8.2 The Supplier may at any time appropriate sums received from the Customer as it thinks fit, notwithstanding any purported appropriation by the Customer.

9. PRICE

- 9.1 The price for each of the Goods to be paid by the Customer to the Supplier are the prices ruling at the time of despatch. Where the Customer is dealing as a Consumer, in the event that the price of the Goods at the date of despatch is more than the price of the Goods on the date of the Supplier's acceptance of the Order, the Customer shall be entitled to cancel the Contract.
- 9.2 The Supplier may at any time prior to delivery of the Goods:
- 9.2.1 Withdraw any discount from its normal prices; and/or
- 9.2.2 revise prices to take account of increases in costs including, without limitation, the cost of any goods, raw materials, transport, labour or overheads, the increase or imposition of any tax, duty or other levy and any variation in exchange rates.
- 9.3 The Supplier shall (if applicable) add to the price of the Goods, and the Customer shall pay, an amount equal to any VAT or other sales tax or duty applicable from time to time to sales or supplies of such Goods.

10. PAYMENT

- 10.1 The Customer may apply for a credit account with the Supplier at any of the Supplier's branches (subject to acceptable credit references being obtained by the Supplier) and such credit may be used in connection with any Contract between the Customer and the Supplier. The Supplier is under no obligation to grant such credit facility and may at any time withdraw or reduce such credit facility.
- 10.2 The Customer shall make all payments due to the Supplier under any Contract by cash on the date of the acceptance of the Order and where the Customer is to utilise any credit account available to them held with the Supplier then all payments due to the Supplier under any Contract shall be made into the Supplier's bank account in pounds sterling by the 25th day of the month following the date of the relevant invoice. No payment shall be deemed to have been received until the Supplier has received cleared funds.
- 10.3 Time of payment is of the essence of a Contract and the Supplier reserves the right to suspend the provision of Goods to the Customer where any amounts are overdue under any Contract until all such amounts have been paid.
- 10.4 The Customer is not entitled to withhold payment of any amount due to the Supplier by way of any set-off or counterclaim.
- 10.5 If the Customer fails to pay any amount due to the Supplier under any Contract on the due date, interest shall be added to such amount at the rate of 8% (eight per cent) per annum over the base rate for the time being of the Clydesdale Bank plc. for the period from and including the date of receipt (whether before or after judgment).

- 10.6 If, in the Supplier's view, the Customer's credit-worthiness deteriorates before delivery of the Goods, the Supplier may require payment in full or in part of the price prior to delivery, or the provision of security for payment by the Customer in such form as is acceptable to the Supplier.
- 10.7 The Supplier reserves the right to alter or withdraw at any time any credit allowed to the Customer. If the credit facility is reduced or withdrawn, all debts owed to the Supplier by the Customer shall become immediately due and payable.
- 10.8 The Supplier may offset any amount owing to it from the Customer against any amount owed to the Customer by the Supplier.
- 10.9 Notwithstanding any appropriation by the Customer to the contrary, all payments made by the Customer to the Supplier shall be appropriated first to Goods which have been resold by the Customer and then to Goods which remain in the Customer's possession or control.

The Supplier may use information about associated individuals' credit histories. The Supplier will also provide information about associations to credit reference agencies and such associations may be taken into account in future applications by the Customer and associated individuals and will continue until the Customer or associated individual successfully files a notice of disassociation with the credit reference agency.
